FOUR MEN SHOT.

Four men were shot and killed at Beaver Creek village in Johnson county, Ky., yesterday, in a fight about an election bet. Numerous settlers had gathered at a small grist mill in the village to secure their flour for another week. This was the first "mill" day since the election, and the district being somewhat remote, many had not heard the result of Tuesday's election until they reached Beaver village yesterday morning. Bets had been wagered last "mill" day, and yesterday was pay day for election bets. A wager between Cameron Estep and John Saddler, both well-to-do people of that mountainous district, led to a quarrel, and four men of the community are now dead and another is dying. The dead are: Cameron Estep, Charley Prater, Enoch Bentley and Reuben Morgan. John Saddler was stabbed four times and cannot survive.

Cameron Estep and John Saddler were among the first to arrive at the mill in Beaver village. They wagered five dollars on the result in Ohio, Saddler betting on Herrick. Estep demanded the money from the stakeholder and the funds were turned over to him.

A little later in the day, after numerous other mountaineers had arrived, many of whom had filled up on moonshine whisky, Saddler decided, from reports current in the community, that Ohio was yet in doubt, and that the money should not have been turned over to Estep. He approached Charley Prater, the stakeholder, and, with an oath, told him that he was going to kill him unless he made Estep give back the money. Prater, who was a dangerous man when in his cups, went to Estep and demanded the return of the money.

Estep asserted that the bet was a fair one, that he had honestly won the money, and that he would die rather than be "held-up," as he termed it, by any republican. At this, Saddler drew from another inner pocket a big revolver, and he no sooner brought it into view than four or five other pistols were drawn in the crowd.

Firing was so rapid that it is difficult to state positively the alignment of the combatants, but when the firing ceased, three men, Charley Prater, Enoch Bentley and Reuben Morgan, were lying upon the ground.

Estep, with a smoking pistol in his hand, started running from the scene, and John Saddler made a rush after him with a club in his hands. Estep turned and snatched his pistol several times at him, but the weapon was empty. Estep was out of ammunition, but he drew a knife and turned to face his pursuer. Saddler struck Estep with the club and staggered him, but he recovered, and sprang upon Saddler, stabbing him four times, every thrust entering a vital spot.

Saddler fell to the ground, and as he was being picked up by a friend, William Saddler, a brother, reached the scene of the conflict, and learning that Estep had fatally wounded his brother, he went in pursuit of Estep and overtook him a few hundred yards up the creek, and opened fire. Estep, with empty revolver in hand, pleaded for mercy from his pursuer, but Saddler continued to fire until Estep dropped dead.

At a late hour yesterday evening John Saddler was still alive, but physicians said he would not survive tonight. All the men engaged were men of families, and were well-to-do people of their community. All leave numerous relatives, and if further bloodshed does not result, even in following generations, from yesterday's tragedy, it will be unlike other feuds which find their origin in the hills of eastern Kentucky.

Platt's Suit Dismissed

The appellate division of the New York State Supreme Court yesterday handed down a decision dismissing a suit brought by John R. Platt against Hannah Elias, a negro, to recover $685,000 which Platt asserted he had given to her under coercion. The court stated in the decision that it was not made on the merits of the case.

"There are in the complaint," the decision reads, "many allegations of acts on the part of Hannah Elias which would result necessarily in a decree requiring her to make restitution of what she received from the plaintiff. The difficulty is that none of the allegations of the complaint respecting fraud, intimidation, threats, coercion, or blackmail is proven. The plaintiff himself, in his testimony in court, said that he gave nothing to the defendant Elias under coercion; that all he gave was voluntarily given; that he paid her household bills, spent large sums of money in furnishing lodgings or apartments for her, advised her with reference to the investment in savings banks of some of the money he gave her, and as to the disposition of other sums not so invested. It

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, THE LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. FOR OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)

(Save the Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

is also true that the plaintiff says that he gave large sums of money to Mrs. Elias 'to prevent anything of our relations coming out to the public,' but there was nothing in his testimony to indicate that there was any threat on the part of Mrs. Elias to expose those relations."

The Fox Hunters.

The Middlesex pack went out yesterday for the meet at Middleburg. After four hours' scent on cold trails, with only one burst of ten minutes, the hounds found near a marble quarry, and after a thirty-five minutes' search in running their fox to earth in the woods below Golick's hill. A field of twenty-six rode to hounds, which is one of the smallest that has yet been out. During the morning Miss Neville Lemmon, of Welbourne, fell at a stone wall, and Mr. Garrett, of Middleburg, went down to a flight of rail. The Grafton hounds will run today.

Three Legs For As Many Mayors.

For the first time in many years, democratic Mayors were elected in the towns of Belaire, Martin's Ferry and Bridgeport, all in Belmont county, O., and adjoining each other on the Ohio river front, and there are only three good legs among the new officials. Dr. J. W. Blackford, Mayor-elect of Martin's Ferry, has two good legs; George Bresort, new Mayor of Bridgeport, has only one good leg, while George Woodport, elected at Belaire, has two wooden legs.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FROM HEAD TO FOOT

You feel the good that's done by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cleanses, regulates and invigorates Stomach, Liver and Bowels and so purifies the blood. And through the blood, it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the whole system. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other exhausting diseases, nothing can equal it as an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength. It rouses every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodily functions, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease that comes from foul or Weak Stomach, a torpid Liver or Impure Blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Don't be hypnotized, wheedled, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute only that some selfish medicine seller may make a greater profit on the inferior article. The "Discovery" has a great record of nearly forty years with thousands of cures behind it.

Dear Sir—Several years ago my blood became impoverished and I became run down in health. I had no appetite, could not sleep, and was practically unable to work. Suffered from innumerable boils and was in bad shape. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery relieved me of my wretched condition. The medicine built up my system and restored me to a normal condition of health. I can speak most highly also, of Dr. Pierce's Food and Health, as it has been used in my family for years in cases of female trouble.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalp of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists.
